

There is no hiding from the fact that we are helping to fund this war

Max Weber / 23.4.2022

Whatever enflamed this brutal war by Russia in Ukraine, and whether it has been fueled by historical, ethnical, economic, territorial, political or mere egoistic motives of the regime, the committed atrocities by the aggressor will never wash off and stain Russian history with blood and greed. In Europe we can't hide from the fact that as long as we are dealing with Russia, we are helping them to fund this war, contributing to the separation, displacement and death of the Ukrainian people and their families.
